Dear Willie

Wandering Willie when in all this confused world of trucks - cars hotels stations etc are you. I got to Liverpool July 12th by the Etruria, & feeling sure you were off to Spain gave up all hope in my infantile longings of finding. Most of the time since then I couldn't even find myself. I got on the whole I've had a sort of good time. I went to Edinburgh & then David Douglas a publisher to whom I had a letter look pity on me & looked after me. Then I went to Dunbar & found a cousin & the old home & the school where I was thrashed. Thence back to Edinburgh - then to Dumfries, then to Stirling & through the Fosses to Oban. - to Litch & thence to Narway. Had a glorious glacial & other times there.

Thence back to Edinburgh & thence to Windermere, Grassmere etc - a charming region. - to London - arrived here yesterday.
Tomorrow I start for Switzerland. Then, perhaps a little more of the north of Scotland & home.

I heard from home today. All well.

Expect to get back to Edinburgh by the end of this month perhaps. & home by the end of October.

I hope you & Mrs K had a good time but your Scotch or Swenduborgian Conscience must have been sore at times.
My address til the end of this month is London Paris & American Bank Limited.
Later it will be David Douglas 10 Castle St Edinburgh
Hoping to meet in S. F. I am Yrs J. Muir
